A Note From Pastor Mark

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
Welcome to the season of Lent.
This is a time for us as individuals and community to reflect upon our relationships that matter. Jesus. I encourage your participation in our weekly midweek worship as well as opportunities for growth through study and prayer.

Lent

Lent always begins with the story of Jesus temptation. The story of Jesus' temptation in the wilderness sticks in our memory as a great example of Godly strength by God's son, Jesus.

But at the end of Jesus' forty days, we find a warning: "(the devil) left him until an opportune time" (verse 13).

We need to be aware that the devil is never very far away from each of us. He waits in the wings to take advantage of the opportunity when we are weakest. And he rejoices in our falling down and in our failings. He longs to reign in our feelings of rejection, discouragement, and despair.

We all need in God's word which can be trusted. "He is with us always" (Matthew 28:20) and also that he sends a host of angels to be with us (Psalm 91:11-12). Our beloved Word of God confirms that "in our weakness God is strong" (Isaiah 40:29- 31). He tells us, "Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid" (Luke 14:27). Jesus prays to God for our protection in John 17 (verses 11 and 15). And when we need the right words, the Holy Spirit will give them to us (Luke 12: 11 - 12).

With those helpful words, with the example of Jesus, and with other godly friends, we can be strong and bold, and invite the Holy Spirit to keep us from caving in when confronted with temptations.

Take time this month to think about times when you've been helped or had the opportunity to be a helper through troubled days. How did those situations impact you? Others?

Pray through some of the above Scriptures and find strength to meet each day. I look forward to our walk together through Lent and once again meet Christ on the other side in His resurrection presence.

Pastor Mark

Adult Education News

Of all the writings that Martin Luther produced, none has had more impact than his Small Catechism. Written for parents to use with their children, the Catechism contains the basics of the Christian faith. In simple language, but with profound insight, Luther gives us a deep understanding of who God is and who we are in relation to God. Many of us were expected to memorize the Catechism as we went through Lutheran confirmation. In fact, I remember Ed, a pilot who flew rescue helicopters in Vietnam. He told me that as he awaited rescue after his own helicopter was shot down, Luther's Catechism came flooding back to him: what Luther had to say about the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, Baptism, and Holy Communion. So there must be something of great importance here! As a part of our preparation for our Reformation 500 celebration this October, we'll explore the Catechism during our midweek Lenten worship and in adult classes during Lent. How about joining us on Wednesday evenings, beginning March 8, at 7 pm for worship; and on Sunday mornings at 10:45 and Wednesdays at 11 am for further exploration and conversation? A great Lenten discipline--much better than giving up watermelon!

Pastor Bill

Ministry Musings

“O! Come, let us sing to the Lord;
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!” Ps 95:1

“O! come, let us worship and bow down,
Let us kneel before the Lord our God our maker.” Ps 95:6

“O! magnify the Lord with me,
And let us exalt God’s name together.” Ps
34:3

Have you ever, like me, seen a beautiful sunset, a newborn baby, a vista from the top of a mountain, the first glimpse of spring, the roar of an ocean or the chaos of children at VBS and been struck totally speechless? There are no words at that moment – just pure emotion that fills your heart, soul and mind. That moment is our word for March, and it is expressed as O!. It’s pure amazement and awe for God and his creation and acts.

As in the Psalm verses above, my only response often is, “O Lord”! Even more words of praise and thankfulness form in my mind and look for expression. Worship is the only way to express all that is inside.

“Worship is the practice of all that is within us to celebrate the joyful goodness of God. It invites us to contemplate the glorious, transcendent living god of love, and it so doing to experience transformation in that image ourselves. Worship is an act of the whole being, uniting intellect with emotion, integrating reason with feeling, combining thought with affection, summoning both of our brains hemispheres and all of our brain’s layers and capacities in a joint corruption of joyful love and loving joy.” Brian McLaren, Naked Spirituality.

Whether we worship in a cathedral of pine trees and babbling brooks, or a cathedral of carved stone and stained glass; whether we worship in the form of time-honored liturgy or less traditional contemporary; whether we worship with others or simply on our own, we are still worshipping God with enthusiasm, joy and awe...O!

And O! is not just for communal worship, but is a way of life. It’s seeing and praising God in all moments; the joy filled and sorrowful, the awe-inspiring and mundane. Here are a few ideas of how to worship God with our whole lives and beings:

- Worship God by greeting him first thing each morning, O!
- Worship God by giving thanks at every meal, O!
- Worship God as the response to every pleasure, O!
- Worship God with first consideration in your weekly schedule, O!
- Worship God as your supervisor or client for all work, O!
- Worship God with the first part of every paycheck, O!
- Worship God with the joy of your creativity, O!

“Hallelujah! Praise God in his holy house of worship, praise him under the open skies; praise him for his acts of power. Praise him for his magnificent greatness; praise him with a blast on the trumpet, praise him by the strumming of strings; praise him with castanets and dance, praise him with banjo and flute, praise him with cymbals and mandolin. Let every living, breathing creature praise God! Hallelujah!” Ps 150 (The Message)

STUBBS FAMILY UPDATE & PRAYER REQUEST

As some of you may know, Carol Stubbs, the wife of Randy Stubbs, the missionaries we help support in Tanzania, has had back pain and a general lack of wellness the last few months. Since her condition continued to deteriorate to the point of her becoming critical she was flown to Pretoria, South Africa for additional diagnostic workup. Before she could finish the workup she had cardiac arrest twice and was thankfully revived. The diagnosis that came back from the doctors was an aggressive and hard to treat form of lymphoma.

So besides treating the cancer her doctors had to rebuild her general health to the point of where she could travel to the United States to be close to family and friends and continue treatment. Surprisingly, over the last two months, through the work of her physicians and many prayers her condition has improved dramatically to the point where plans are being made to transport her home to DeKalb.

It has been a real miracle how Carol has come back from the edge of death to where she is now taking small walks, eating and becoming stronger every day. People have been praying for her here in the states and also in Tanzania. Prayers do work!

Even though Carol has made great progress, the road ahead will be hard and difficult. Randy and the family have asked for your continuing prayers as she travels home and fights her disease. May God comfort and strengthen them in the weeks and months ahead.

We thought you would like to read our quilters prayer that each of us reads a line at every one of our quilting sessions:

A Quilter's Prayer by Patricia Hauze (2003, used with permission)

Guide my hands to work as your hands work, to know the power of your love in every stitch I make, in every thread I knot. May my hands be guided by the same love and care with every quilt I make, knowing that this love and care was and is and will continue to be a gift of blessing to the one it is intended for.

May the work of my hands be pleasing in your sight, O God.
Lord, bless my work today.

As I choose materials and patterns, may I be reminded of the uniqueness you blessed us all with.

As I cut each length of thread, may I be reminded of the doors that must be closed in our lives so that a new and stronger door may be opened.

As I tie each knot, may I be reminded of a bond of love so strong, nothing will break it.

As I run the thread between my fingers, may I be reminded of the times you have touched my life, my heart, my soul.

As I sew each stitch, may I be reminded of the healing power of your grace in each of us.

As I concentrate on my craft, may I be reminded of the love and care you put into each of our lives.

As I add my last stitch, tie my last knot, cut the final cord, may I be reminded of the completeness with which you commanded in each of us before we were ever given to this life.

"Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might."
(Ecclesiastes 9:10 A)

Amen

Please hold the date and mark your calendars accordingly for Saturday, May 13, 2017 so you can help do God's Work with Your Hands at the Northern Illinois Food Bank. If needed, there are also sit-down jobs that contribute to the projects.

Simply let us know. Whether you have been there or not in the past, you will discover how great it feels to assist.

A Saturday date was chosen so that families (children minimum age 8) have a better chance of participating together. It is a great learning experience for people of all ages. The project will end by 11:30. Participants are welcome to carpool together. If you need assistance in organizing a carpool, we are happy to assist. As Isaiah 58:10 tells us, "Feed the hungry and help those in trouble, then your light will rise and the darkness around you will be as bright as day."
