2017 CONFIRMATION CLASS

CONGRATULATIONS
2017 CONFIRMANDS!

Confirmation

Sunday, May 21st at 10:45 am, the following students will receive the Rite of Affirmation of Baptism:

JAMIE BECK	KAIA HUSTON	CHARLIE NISSEN
NATHANIEL BLACK	MARISA JODWAY	SAVANNAH PATEL
BRENNEN CLEMENTI	ANNABEL JOHNSON	ALEX ROJAS
JONATHAN CRASE	VENESSA LORENZO	ABIGAIL TINSLEY
TYLER DEBLIECK	PAYTON MARX	JACK TREVINO
JACOB FIANDALO	DYLAN MEJDRICH	KEVIN TWEDT
SKYLA GELLER	GRACE MORETTI
CHELSEA GREENE	HANNAH MUSIAK

We pray that God strengthens them with His gifts of grace, to love and to serve as disciples of Christ, and that they may be filled with the joy of His presence.

In their affirmation of baptism, these young men and women are publicly declaring their faith on their own.

In their baptism, their parents, by the power of the Holy Spirit, confessed the faith of the church on their behalf.

Since then, the Holy Spirit has been helping them to learn and follow the teachings of the Lord Jesus.

Now, at their confirmation, by the power of that same Spirit, they will each affirm their baptism with their own confession of faith.

A Note From Pastor Mark

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As Spring takes hold of our weather again, we as Christians cannot help but ponder the Holy One who has dominion over the earth. We delight in the one who will wake up the sleeping seeds and bulbs, the one who will cause the life blood of the dormant trees to birth new buds, blossoms, and leaves.

God alone is the one who will cause the earth and moon to align their positions, the wind to change the flow of cool and warm breezes, the seasonal cycles to resume. Yet there will be conflict in nature as the curse of sin tries to prevail.

With natural disasters, it may appear that God has abandoned earth, yet we know God will stand by us and bring healing.

Perhaps a stronger character and stamina will be built among the survivors.

David, in Psalm 22, uttered words of praise. He acknowledged God's strength, God's deliverance against the power of evil, and God's rescue from death. David recognized that God does not overlook the suffering of those afflicted nor refuse to listen and stay near those who are crying for help.

David saw that through God's plan we are able to fulfill our vows, feed and care for the poor, maintain peaceful hearts that live forever, and desire to proclaim all God has done to benefit future generations.

God is able to bring satisfaction and blessings to those who honor and fear God.

Will we be among those who stand and bow before the Lord with praise on our lips for all God does?

Do we recognize God's works in the center of our action?

Do we consciously intend to partner with God? Do we see miracles?

We will all eventually reach death's door. When we do, there is only one who can give us new life. God promises to meet us and take us on eternity's path.

As you bear witness again to Springtime, give thanks to God for the promise of Easter life. New life in Jesus name.

Pastor Mark

Adult Education News

During the month of May our adult education classes come to an end--until September, that is! We've been on a Reformation 500 anniversary journey since last fall. We've covered a lot of territory as we've explored one of the most significant events in human history: the Protestant Reformation. In May we conclude with what Martin Luther called the Theology of Glory and the Theology of the Cross. The first is appealing but a sham. The second appears to be both a sham and shameful, but it alone reflects the true nature of God. And then we'll end by thinking through God's Alien Work and God's Proper Work. God's wrath and God's love. At first glance, much of Luther's writings appear to be out of tune with modern life. But when we begin to explore his teachings, we're often surprised to find out just how relevant the old man was! If only we have ears to hear, minds to absorb, and a willingness to be challenged to think of old things in new ways. So even if you haven't joined us this past year, it's not too late. We'd be delighted to have you the weeks of May 7 and 21. (No class the week of May 14 due to Mothers Day.)

Pastor Bill

Ministry Musings

HELP

Last month we explored the word sorry and how powerful that simple word can be in our life and the life of others. Help can have just as potent an effect on our lives and relationships.

When we are willing to turn to God for help we are bound more powerfully to him through our needs and our vulnerabilities than we can ever be through our accomplishments. Our humanness wants to have us remind God, and anyone else who will listen, of how well we are doing; our abilities to handle whatever comes our way. But when we come to God and lay before him our struggles, mistakes, fears, hopes, dreams and needs we can connect with him in a deeper way than in our strengths. Remember the story of the Pharisee and the tax collector in Luke 18? Jesus says the one who came before God in his sin and despair is the one who was justified.

Petition is another way of saying help. Many of us are uncomfortable about praying for ourselves, but Jesus prayed for himself (Matt 26:9), and taught in the Lord's Prayer to pray for our daily bread, our forgiveness, our safety from temptation and evil. It's easier for many of us to ask for help for others; however, asking God for help for ourselves represents a move from self-reliance to God-reliance, and that is always a step in the right direction!

But in asking God for help for ourselves we need to be careful not to view God as our personal genie, the enactor of our will here on earth. Often our prayers of help for ourselves become a request for our will to be done and to make people or situations bend to our desires or needs. Someone is upset with us and we ask God to help them "get over it"; we're running late due to our own bad time usage and we ask God to make the lights green and find us a close parking space; we have a behavior that needs to be modified and we ask God to "take it away" or "fix it" so we don't have to put in the time, discipline and dependence on him to redirect our behavior.

When we cry to God for help and then leave it in his hands, we may get an answer we don't expect.

Several years ago, when my husband Russ was retiring he wanted to move to Dallas for the warmer weather. This move was something that had been in our plans for years, but when the time got closer our daughter was expecting our first grandchild and I really didn't want to move. I remember crying out in despair to God for help, expecting him to change Russ' mind about moving; after all, that's what I wanted and was really asking for. But lo and behold, he changed my heart and mind so that I was OK with the move and the despair was lifted. Not the kind of help I wanted or expected, but later he showed me many reasons why he moved us there.

Anxiety is another cry for help. Life is tough! God doesn't promise us an easy life or a "get out of suffering free" card; even Jesus didn't get one of those. But much of our anxiety hovers around the "what ifs" in life! It tempts us to expect the worst, to inflate every risk into a potential disaster! "What if" I lose my job; "what if" the test shows cancer; "what if" my friend doesn't forgive me; "what if" I never find the right person or lose the one I have found? Anxiety and "what ifs" can be black holes that suck everything into itself!

But a prayer to God for help can give us the opportunity to reframe the situation into an occasion for growth. It's important that we name our fears, hurts and disappointments to God. Then we can ask for his help in bringing us out of the frantic zone and into connection with him where we can hold words like guidance, patience, mercy, courage, wisdom, peace, forgiveness, healing and calm before him as his grace flows over us. 2 Corinthians 12:1-10.

TOUCHSTONES

Many here at Shepherd of the Prairie have lost loved ones in recent months and we thought this might be a good time to draw us all together into a group where we can possibly help each other to deal with the devastating losses of our loved ones. We here at SOTP would like to provide that kind of opportunity for you. There are no requirements to commit to a specific length of time to attend nor that you must attend every session; you don't even need to speak except to introduce yourself and tell us who you have lost. There is no charge for participation in this group.

This group is for all who have lost a loved one whether it is a spouse, a parent, a sibling, a child, a grandchild, a friend or any other relational loss. We will meet on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each month at Shepherd of the Prairie at 6:30 pm starting on May 9th.

*If you have any questions or to sign up please contact Donna Kelly at donna@sotpmail.com or 214-676-1788.

NAME TAGS

More of our members are wearing name tags. It really helps visitors and new members meet other members.

One easy way to make everyone comfortable is to wear your name tag. If you have misplaced your name tag, you can order a new one at the "Welcome Center" in the Narthex/Crossroads. It also helps Pastor Mark with names as our membership is over 1000.

DID YOU KNOW? (STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS...)

Did you know?

In Greek, 2 Corinthians 9:7 looks like this: “εκαστος καθως προηρηται τη καρδια μη εκ λυπης η εξ αναγκης ιλαρον γαρ δοτην αγαπα ο θεος.”

When translated into English, we read “Each one must do as (s)he has made up his/her mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.”

The letters of the word that is translated “cheerful” could make up the word “hilaron” from which the word “hilarity” or “hilarious” is derived. When the offering plate is coming down our row, are we filled with delight and merriment as someone hands the plate to us?

I hope so.

I would like to thank everyone who had a role in presenting The Maundy Thursday Living supper. Mike Yndestad created a wonderful backdrop of color with the lighting to highlight the set that Barb Pagano designed. I can't forget to thank Carol Lilla and Mary Conti who made the disciples look well pressed and appointed and Greg Dowell making sure the sound was finely tuned to pick up the disciples who were spread out over the stage area as well as Pastor Mark handling the slides.

Especially I would like the to thank the players who presented strong portrayals of their disciple.

COFFEE HOUR VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Sunday morning Coffee Fellowship is in need of volunteers! Sign up for a one-time event or on a regular basis, it's up to you!

What does this entail you ask?

The volunteer is simply asked to be in the kitchen on Sunday morning (9:50 am until 10:40 am) to set out any donated treats on the snack table along with making sure the supplies on the counter for the coffee remain stocked. If you can clean up following great but if not, this can be done for you! The greatest part is that everything is written down for you and labeled to make it simple. That's it! Smiling and saying "Good Morning" is optional but appreciated. Ha ha!

You are not responsible for bringing treats unless you want to. This is a VERY easy, but necessary ministry. Sign up with a friend, teens sign up with a parent, or make it a group or family activity. Everyone is welcome!

*If you would like to volunteer or for more information please sign up in the Crossroads (bulletin board to the west of the main doors on the wall) or contact Shannon Ross at shannin888@yahoo.com or call her at 815/751-2637.

CHILDRENS BELLS & CHOIR

Final rehearsal for this school year is Wednesday, May 10th. All children will participate in worship on Mother's Day.

THE PRAYING PARENT BY WALT MUELLER, CPYU PRESIDENT

With my own four children now out of their teenage years and into adulthood, I've had plenty of opportunity to think back on my own parenting journey. On the one hand, I'm grateful for the Godly advice that was given to me by older parents who had already raised their now adult children. All of the good advice I had chosen to follow paid great dividends. On the other hand, hindsight leaves me with some regrets. . . things I wish I had done differently as a dad.

One of my personal parenting regrets relates to prayer. Yes, we prayed for our children. But all too often those prayers were squeezed in between other activities on our busy and frantic schedules. Looking back, I also realize that our prayers were "amped up" in frequency and intensity when we were in the midst of navigating difficult parenting matters with our kids. I'm sure that's not unusual, but I do wish that the frequency and intensity of those "tough time" prayers was the usual rather than the from time-to-time.

Why not take some time to challenge yourself to pray regularly for your children in the same manner that Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane the night before His death. In Matthew 26:39 we read: "Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, 'My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will.'"

The great English preacher Charles Spurgeon wrote that there are five aspects to the way Jesus prayed in Matthew 26:39 that we would do well to emulate. How might enlisting each of these aspects change the way you pray for your children?

First, our prayer for our children should be lonely prayer. This does not mean that we are to feel alone as we parent our kids. Rather, we are to look regularly for opportunities to withdraw from all the regular activities, hurriedness, and distractions of life to focus solely on prayer. He was deliberately by himself where no ears but God's ears would hear his prayers. A lonely prayer is an intense and focused prayer.

Second, our prayer for our children should be humble prayer. When Jesus approached his Father in prayer he fell with his face to the ground. This was a position that represented humble recognition of his Father's power, sovereignty, and holiness. Sometimes we get lost in thinking that we know what to do and how to do it. Reality is, that if we depend solely on ourselves and not on God for guidance, direction, wisdom, and power, we are doomed to eventually fail. It's better to humbly fall flat on your face while crying out to God in prayer, than falling flat on your face through failure rooted in self-reliance.

Third, our prayer for our children should be filial prayer. The word "filial" signifies the affection, respect, and devotion from a son or daughter to a parent. Jesus assumed a filial posture as he approached his Heavenly Father. In the same way, those of us who have been adopted by God as His sons and daughters must "plead" our adoption, recognizing that God has given us the right and privilege to approach Him as His children.

Fourth, our prayer for our children should be persevering prayer. The Bible tells us that while he was in the Garden, he prayed three times. Prayer for our children should be regular and ongoing.

And fifth, our prayer for our children should be submissive prayer. If you're like me, your prayers are uttered while assuming that you know what the most desirable answer and outcome should be. But the prayer of Jesus reminds us that we must trust God's wisdom, as He will give us the answer we need. We must pray, "not my will, but Your will be done."

Perhaps you've only understood Easter as a time to celebrate new life. But Easter is much more than that. This year, make it an opportunity to learn new ways to pray.

YOUTH CULTURE HOT QUOTE

"Because of social media, we are becoming master manipulators, constant performers, and no one is better at these endeavors than young adults, because they are learning earlier and earlier that these skills are central to success, either social or professional.

Donna Freitas, in The Happiness Effect: How Social Media is Driving a Generation to Appear Perfect at Any Cost, p. 76

Trends

STI Increase

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention are reporting a spike in sexually transmitted infections among young people. Specifically, instances of chlamydia are up nearly six percent since 2014. Instances of gonorrhea are up nearly 13%. And instances of syphilis are up nearly 19%. The CDC is also reporting that almost 20 million new cases of STIs occur every year, over half of them afflicting people between the ages of fifteen and twenty-four. The CDC is also reporting that the reason for this sudden spike is that many young people are not wearing condoms. As Christians, we want to be about the task of leading our kids into a healthy experience of sexuality that gives honor and glory to God. Sex is a good gift from God that is to be enjoyed between one man and one woman, within the context of a committed marriage. We flourish spiritually, emotionally, relationally, and physically when we endeavor to find our sexual freedom within God's parameters.

Latest Research

Non-Concussive head injuries

Three million children are involved in tackle football programs here in the United States. You've no doubt heard about the growing concerns related to kids, football, and the impact of concussions on their brains both in the short and long-term. Now, researchers at Wake Forest University are studying the impact of less-serious blows to the head and what they do to football players ages eight to thirteen. This is important research as the brain is in the middle of a particularly vulnerable stage of change during this period of life. MRIs on test subjects indicate that there are some changes in the brain's white matter, which is the tissue that connects the gray matter of the brain. And the more exposure a boy has to head impacts, the greater the amount of change, even after only one season of playing youth football. While more research is needed to determine the long-term impact of non-concussive hits, parents are wise to consider the possible effects and safety of their sons.

- Among college student spring breakers, 38% said they regretted drinking alcohol, 32% said they regretted a sexual encounter and 11% said they regretted drug use. (ProjectKnow)
- 27% of 10- to 18-year-olds named social networking sites as their favorite news source. (Common Sense Media)
