A Note From Pastor Mark

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Well, the pace of ministry is beginning to kick into high gear around here at Shepherd of the Prairie. The hallways, rooms and the east side of the building are filled with a cacophony of sound. Many of those sounds unlike I have ever heard before.

The most important thing happening at SOTP is that lives are being changed, the Gospel is being proclaimed and we are making room for more to hear and experience the grace of God here in this place.

For my morning prayers this morning I was reading from Paul's letter to the Ephesians.

Paul offers a prayer for his readers that they may "know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that (you) may be filled with all the fullness of God." Ephesians 3:18

He describes God as "him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine."

We live in God's abundance and God's abundance lives within us. But we lack the ability to imagine adequately God's abundance, even when it lives in us.

We underestimate God and we underestimate what is within us!

Paul was concerned that the believers in Ephesus would not lose heart because of the sufferings he faced. It is easy to become discouraged when one hears bad news.

Do you remember a time when bad news came and it seemed everything you cared about was pointless?

How did you manage through the circumstance?

What lessons did you learn?

When we are personally affected by a piece of bad news, we can become more aware of other people's bad news and everything grows dim.

When we become discouraged, it is difficult to climb out of the hole.

A Note From Pastor Mark (continued)

Paul would remind us in Ephesians 3 that there is much more available than what we know or see.

God's abundance, God's abundant love, is all around us and within us.

Take time to notice God's abundance around you and within your life. What abundance do you notice around you? What abundance or surprising resources have you discovered within you?

We often underestimate our abilities and inner resources.

Paul prayed for his followers. "(I pray that) you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit..." God's abundant Spirit, indeed, God's abundance, fills our hearts, too. Take notice of the abundance that dwells within you and thank God for God's mercies and grace.

Adult Education News

Reformation 500 anew! Last year we covered an incredible amount of ground in our Reformation 500 story. Not all the ground, of course. There's still much to do! And so in September we'll inaugurate a new year with a review of where we've been and an introduction to where we're going. And where's that? We'll be talking about science and the Reformation. What were those amazing scientific discoveries and who were the famous scientists during the days of Martin Luther? And what music was composed during this time? Music that's still with us today that has shaped our faith and theology? Then we'll explore the history of the Lutheran church in the United States. Where did our Reformation ancestors come from? How did they help to shape America--and how did America shape them? And finally what about the Lutheran church today? At home? Abroad? How does the Reformation continue into the 21st century and beyond?

All this begins on Sunday, September 17, at 10:20, and on Wednesday, September 20, at 11 am and 7 pm. Come join us! And even if you didn't participate in adult education last year, it's never too late. There's always room for YOU!

Pastor Bill

Want to Travel with SOTP Family?

Interested in travel? How about taking a trip to parts of Greece, Italy, and Israel? Or to Germany? On Sunday, September 10, at 10:20 and again at 11:45, you're invited to join us in the adult education room to hear about potential trips to the places where Jesus walked and Paul traveled, as well as to the significant towns of Luther's Reformation.

The first trip, Lands of the Bible Cruise, will occur October 29-November 11, 2018. The second trip, which includes the Passion Play in Oberammergau, Germany, is scheduled for September, 2020. A year from now and three years from now! But it's not too early to start planning. So if you have the least inkling to make one or both of these journeys, or are just plain curious, come join us!

Pastor Bill

Ministry Musings

WHY?

NO! was the word we considered last month. NO! It can't be this way! We spoke of raging at God and denying what has happened by saying NO!

But the time comes when our hearts and minds make a subtle shift to acceptance when we cry out WHY? I remember when my husband Russ died that I lived in that state of denial and shock saying NO!, this can't be true; NO! he can't really be gone. As time went by I distinctly remember when my NO! changed to WHY?.

WHY? is a question and prayer of faith; we don't have the answers and we don't understand, but somewhere deep down we dare to hope that there may be an answer, so we ask, "WHY? Lord?". When a loved one dies even after fervent prayer we may ask, "WHY? didn't I have enough faith?". If life seems out of control we may ask, "WHY? don't you just pull yourself together?". When we find ourselves in the same mess or the same sin over and over we may ask, "WHY? don't you just see what's right and do it?". When we wonder if God hears us or if he is even there we may ask, "WHY? don't you just believe?".

On the cross Jesus asked, "My God, My God, WHY? have you forsaken me?". At that moment, like sometimes happens to us, everything he has trusted in has collapsed under him. But still he cried My God, My God. Even in that instant of total darkness, is it possible that for Jesus the word WHY? Held open the door just a crack, a hope against hope that somehow there might be a purpose for this madness? Jesus asked WHY?, and that validated the pain, abandonment and despair; but those things did not have the last word! His My God and WHY? God spoke of not only his honesty but his faith and trust, not in a plan but in GOD!

During my time of loss, people said things to me like, "It's all part of God's plan" or "He has a reason this has happened." But I refused then and I do now to believe that God is like some heartless puppet master who causes earthquakes, child abuse, murder, disease or death as part of a preordained plan.

Rather, I tend to believe and ask in my WHY? what possible good can be brought out of this tragic suffering? This stance makes no assumption that the present moment is inevitable or intentional, nor is it meaningless, but it trusts that as Paul says in Romans 8, "That's why we can be sure that every detail in our lives of love for God is worked into something good". (The Message)

The WHY? that seeks an explanation for what has happened looks backward and invites passivity and resignation and we are all there at some point. But the WHY? that seeks meaning by bringing some future good out of this agony looks forward to a new creative possibility. Even in our greatest season of WHY? good can be sought after and hoped for. Good can be worked. Good can rise again!

BOOK CHATTERS ~ READING LIST

Like to read? Then talk about it? Another year of reading is planned by the Chatters which meets at the church from 1-3 p.m. each third Wednesday of the month. We're a small group that's yearning to grow a bit. That means we'd love to welcome you to the group. We are more about enjoying the books and each other than we are about stuffiness -- often we dissolve into hilarity. Sometimes we shed tears. Once this past year, we arrived at the meeting and admitted the book was such a turnoff that nobody had finished it -- then we proceeded to discuss Charles Dickens, his style, and the legal profession for the full two hours. We do chat!!! Read over the list chosen by the group and plan to join us for all, or some, or even one discussion.

THE LIST:

- ⇒ September 20 ANGRY HOUSEWIVES EATING BONBONS by Lorna Landvik - (a book about a book club).
- ⇒ October 18 REDEEMING LOVE by Francine Rivers— (a Biblical story set in later times)
- ⇒ November 15 BRAIN ON FIRE by Susannah Catalan— (a woman fights a frightening brain disease and wins)
- ⇒ December 20 CHRISTMAS BELLS by Jennifer Chiaverini— (a book about the carol "I Heard the Bells")
- ⇒ January 17 WHERE THE HEART IS by Billie Letts— (a sweet story about a baby born in Walmart)
- ⇒ February 21 SHOE DOG by Phil Knight— (Knight invented the Nike brand and has a good story)
- ⇒ March 21 REBECCA by Daphne du Maurier— (our yearly classic which all promise to read)
- ⇒ April 18 THE BOY IN STRIPED PAJAMAS by John Boone— (a painfully ironic tale/fable about the Holocaust)
- ⇒ May 16 THE STARS ARE FIRE by Anita Shreve— (two women learn to depend on each other to escape tragedy)
- ⇒ June 20 THE ORPHAN'S TALE by Pam Jenoff— (another Holocaust story, but this one promises a "Hallmarkian" ending. In other words, we end the year not sad)

Please join us!! Contact: Gail Barnard at gbarnd217@comcast.net

The Stubbs, our sponsored missionary family who do God's work in Tanzania, have just returned from there after a brief visit.

Carol (who is in remission from a rare form of leukemia) handled the trip well and reported the following: "It is quite a trill to see the Cultural Arts Center in its nearly completed state. Randy's vision and persistence to bring this project to fruition midst many challenges is quite remarkable. I pray that many will be blessed by the CAC through the joy of dance, music and education."

Both Randy and Carol thank all who have prayed and helped in so many other ways these past months. Continuing prayers will be needed in the future.
