BUILDING TEAM NEWS

RAIN RAIN GO AWAY.....SOTP NEEDS A PARKING LOT!!!!

Delays... Delays.....

All of this rain has caused a backlog for the:

- Parking Lot
- Sidewalk
- Pews

We can't have the pews delivered until we have sidewalks....think of the mess it would cause trampling in all of the gravel on our new floors. UGH!

However, the Good News is this:

- WE HAVE ALL NEW LUXURY VINYL TILE IN THE SANCTUARY AND GATHERING ROOM.
- WE HAVE ALL NEW CARPET TILES IN ALL OF THE HALLWAYS ...BOTH IN THE NEW BUILDING AS WELL AS IN THE EXISTING BUILDING, ALONG WITH THE NEW OFFICES, SACRISTY AND SOUND BOOTH!!!!
- THE CROSSROADS AREA LOOKS BEAUTIFUL!!!
Thank you Property Team for allotting this money to beautify our existing space.
- THANK YOU TO KEN GNIOT AND FUTURES FLOORING FOR DOING SUCH A PROFESSIONAL JOB INSTALLING ALL OF THE NEW FLOORS AND CARPET TILES.

So please have patience. The rain did cause delays, but it also allowed the time for other important things to get accomplished.

A Note From Pastor Mark

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Last weekend was Pentecost (the sending of the Spirit) and our Gospel reading was from John 14, Jesus' farewell address anxiety among the disciples. When Jesus leaves us, what then? "Lord show us the Father..." Philip demands. Jesus says, "I am in the Father and the Father is in me" (John 14:11 RSV). This is all well and good. But more assurance is needed. Jesus finally says, "...the Father will give you another Counselor, to be with you forever..." (John 14:16 RSV). John is the only gospel who uses "counselor" or "advocate" to describe the Holy Spirit.

Have you experienced a situation where you have acted on behalf of another as an advocate or counselor? Or have you had someone be an advocate for you?

What were the circumstances? What was it like being an advocate or having an advocate?

For the disciples of Jesus, the experience of being sent into the world can feel like abandonment. On what can we count? What or who can help us make decisions?

Jesus says to the disciples, "These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you" (John 14:25-26 RSV). There it is! The Holy Spirit, counselor and advocate, improves our memory!

What a powerful thing it is to have a memory return. Something I haven't thought about for years may come back to me like a gift discovered in an old trunk. In fact, important experiences forgotten may often come to mind just when we need them. If we are to believe John's Gospel witness, this is the work of God's Holy Spirit.

The older I get, the more important memory is.

As we go into the world, like the first disciples, on behalf of Christ, and move outward in mission, we can count on the Holy Spirit to help us remember (what is truly important), give us wisdom and support our ministry of witness. The Holy Spirit helps us go forth in mission.

Otherwise, we hang back terrified, unsure or focus on things of this world. Courage to move out in mission is possible because of the Holy Spirit. Jesus gives these words of comfort to those who are fearful, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid" (John 14:27 RSV).

As we move through these days of summer into God's mission field, I pray you will not be afraid. Through the Holy Spirit, remember God's grace poured out for you through the gift of Jesus Christ, God's Son, our Lord is sufficient.

Peace,

Pastor Mark

Adult Education News

While we won't be having weekly classes during the summer months, we will have three opportunities to gather for a bit of Christian education. We'll be focusing on the fall trip to Italy, Greece, and the Holy Land, but everyone is invited to attend any or all of these three classes. We'll meet on Tuesday evenings, 6:30-7:30 in the Adult Education classroom, on July 10, July 31, and August 14. We'll cover the Apostle Paul, the places Paul visited in Greece and Italy where we'll visit, and the Holy Land. Come join us! And, if you're still thinking about joining us for the trip, it's not too late. See Pastor Bill for information.

Ministry Musings

Luke 9:21-27

"Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me."
~ Luke 9:27

Recently I read this passage on morning as part of my "coffee with God" time, and saw something for the first time; the word DAILY. I had never noticed that in Luke Jesus says that we must take up our cross DAILY. In both

Matthew and Mark this saying of Jesus does not include the word daily.

The commentary I read for that day said, “discipleship is an ongoing way of life (DAILY), and the self-denial of discipleship is not a matter of denying the self of various things, but of putting the cause of Christ ahead of all of the desires of self. Furthermore, the cross that is to be borne is more than a hardship that must be endured, like a chronic illness. It is the result of the decision to take up ... DAILY the life of self-giving love, even at the cost of one’s life”.

So what does that mean for me? That deciding to follow Jesus is a daily choice, not a one-time moment.

That putting him first is deciding over and over and over again. It's not a 'one and done' thing, but a decision that might need to be made every few moments. It's choosing an option at each temptation, each opportunity, each time I am called to follow God in whatever juncture is offered.

I found this idea extremely freeing! I grew up with a 'one and done' mentality in regards to faith. As a teen I remember the idea that you made a 'decision for Christ' at an altar call, or confirmation, or a youth camp retreat, or some other moment in time and that was it! Life moved forward from that point and you easily walked with God forever. But I found that even though I made that commitment to God, surrendered to God, gave him all of me or however else it was phrased, the smooth journey I anticipated and expected didn't seem to follow.

When I messed up or got off the path, I was sure it was because I hadn't made a “complete” commitment, or surrendered “all of me”, (surrender was a big buzz word back then) so I would try again to make that 'one and done', total commitment to God; and once again I would mess up. I thought that 'one and done' was how it worked and felt like a failure – to myself and God.

But following Jesus isn't 'one and done'. In Luke Jesus says, “take up...DAILY”. What a relief that is for me. I can make that decision for him, commit my life, surrender myself over and over again! And each time I return home like the prodigal son, he welcomes and forgives me and off we go on this journey of life once more...together!

BUILDING ON FAITH

BUILDING ON FAITH: Our campaign was kicked off on March 10-11 and it's been an exciting 2-1/2 months as members and others made generous gifts to BOF campaign. The effort to help furnish the needed items for the worship and gathering areas, welcome center, sound board, pantry, sacristy, storage and the "loop-it" system for the hearing impaired has been overwhelming. We can't thank you enough for all your gifts. In early May we added numerous landscaping items: trees, bushes, plants and grasses. Again members gifted a wide selection of the needed landscaping items. We have received over $80,000.00 in gifted items and landscaping since March 10th. There are many, many, items still needed in all categories. We keep our lists updated as fast as we can each week. Gifts may also be made "as needed". Please stop at the BUILDING ON FAITH table in the Cross+roads/narthex and pick-up a current brochure or green flyer to see what is still available for gifting. If you have questions or need to know the availability of any items please call Sue Wehnes 224 569-2808 or e-mail: susanwehnes@sbcglobal.net. Thank you again for your generosity.

LOOP IT - You may not have heard the word before but it will be an important part of the new worship center for our hearing impaired members and visitors. The LOOP-IT system was installed on the floor prior to the flooring installation. The system will allow those with a hearing aid equipped with a t-coil to hear better. It even works if you have a cochlear implant. The system has other options for the hearing impaired. The Loop-it system was a cost of $5200.00. A partial gift has already been received for the system. It is an item on the Building on Faith list for anyone who would like to contribute. Questions on the LOOP-IT system may be directed to our council president, Bud Hansen who has already adapted his hearing aid for this new system. Thank you for your consideration.

NORTHERN IL FOOD BANK

I am soooo thankful so many of you wonderful members of SOTP, plus some wonderful relatives and wonderful friends, were able to come and serve God by helping at the Northern Illinois Food Bank. I am so thankful; I actually have tears in my eyes as I type this message. I believe this was one of the best projects we ever had packing up 19,800 containers of pre-packaged cereal that ultimately weighed 3,300 pounds and provided 2,750 meals for our hungry neighbors. "This was definitely a day that the Lord had made, so let us rejoice and be glad in it!" ~ Psalm 118:24

WALKER THANK YOU

Thank you to our church family for all of the prayers, cards, phone calls and concern for George and I. We can feel the love and appreciate it so much! Noreta

BOOK CHATTERS NEW READING LIST

Book Chatters have been meeting at 1 p.m. on the third Wednesday September through June for several years now; we forget just how many. There are five or six stalwarts who've been in the group all along, but others drop in and out depending on travel plans, book titles or even the weather. We'd like you to join us in whatever method you like and will assume you are a member whenever you can join us. To facilitate your decision, we've picked our books for the next reading season. As leader, I researched book club reading lists and compiled twenty-five titles from which the group chose the ten listed below:

- ⇒ September 2018 THE CHERRY COLA BOOK CLUB by Ashton Lee. (We start our year as a book club with a book about a book club.)
- ⇒ October 2018 HIDDEN FIGURES by Margot Lee Shetterly. (We read at least one nonfiction, this one about pioneering NASA mathematicians.)
- ⇒ November 2018 ISCARIOT by Tosca Lee. (Always we do at least one religious or inspirational title, this one a look at Judas' story from his viewpoint.)
- ⇒ December 2018 THE DEAL OF A LIFETIME by Fredrik Backman. (Our Christmas selection this year is a short novella, which makes time for a short holiday discussion and a bonafide Christmas party!)
- ⇒ January 2019 BRITT-MARIE WAS HERE by Fredrik Backman (Yes, Backman is back). One of our fiction selections, this involves a woman who takes over a failing recreation center and its youth soccer team — sure to be a fun read because of Backman.)
- ⇒ February 2019 MURDER ON THE ORIENT EXPRESS by Agatha Christie. (We always choose a literary classic, and after two years ago we promised to actually make ourselves read the choice, no matter how difficult—but this one will present no obstacles.)
- ⇒ March 2019 UNDERGROUND GIRLS OF KABUL by Jenny Nordberg. (Another nonfiction choice about young girls in Kabul who masquerade as boys in order to have safer, less restrictive lives.)
- ⇒ April 2019 THE PRODIGAL by Brennan Manning and Greg Garrett. (A second inspirational book that is a modern application of the Prodigal Son story dealing with a mega church pastor who slips from grace and has some work to do toward redemption.)
- ⇒ May 2019 LILAC GIRLS by Martha Hall Kelley. (This fiction piece involves three women during and near the end of WWII and how their stories intertwine — a thought provoking and somewhat uncomfortable read but worth the time)
- ⇒ June 2019 THE GREAT ALONE by Kristin Hannah. (Kristin Hannah always writes a very readable book, this one about a POW who tries to repair his family and himself by isolating them in the solitude of frontier Alaska. We'll read it to see if his plan works, counting the book inspirational if it does.)

Read over this list, try some or all of the books, and plan to join us — one o'clock on third Wednesday's. ~ Gail Barnard, Group Leader

TUZIK THANK YOU

My Dear Church Family,

Thank you for all of the support you have given me and Emily during this very difficult time in our lives. After a twenty-year long battle with inclusion body myositis, Charlie passed away due to complications from his disease. I don't think there are words to express our appreciation for the outpouring of love for us from this church. Although we had a private memorial service for Charlie, as was his request, you sent cards and emails, you brought food, you called, many of you stopped by, and most of all, your prayers are sustaining us. Your heartfelt love has touched us deeply, and for that we thank you.
