A Note From Pastor Mark

Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are my God my savior, and my hope is in you all day long (Psalm 25:5).

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

These are honest open words asking for guidance.

Asking in such a way seems simple doesn't it? Our problem is usually waiting for an answer. We want an answer immediately, and in a way we think is best for us. We are not good at taking time to listen, or searching the Bible for further guidance.

We forget that our way is not God's way. We get impatient. Sometimes we give up. Maybe we think it wasn't the right time to pray. Maybe we feel guilty about what we perceive as God's lack of response because we don't think we measure up.

We're not good enough. We forget that we live in grace and that our heavenly father hears us and is concerned about our needs.

Psalm 23 is another example of praying for guidance. It reflects peace, comfort and guidance, assuring us that God is constantly watching over us and knows our every need.

Daily prayer helps us feel connected to God. It strengthens our soul. When we pray for guidance, we also need to listen. Listening is a trait that seems to be in short supply ... ask any spouse!

Prayer

And often, when we do attempt to listen, we take words the wrong way, or ignore them, or respond unkindly ... because what we hear is not what we want to hear. What can we do about that?

Is it possible to be an openminded listener? Will this take practice?

Have you ever thought about how you listen to God? Do you offer long prayers filled with lamenting in hopes of convincing God about something? In hopes of making a deal?

Or do you honestly tell God what's bothering you, and admitting that the burden is too heavy for you to bear alone?

Do you set aside a quiet time for prayer, or are you prone to fire off a prayer like a TV commercial?

Do you get frustrated or impatient if you don't see immediate results? And what are "results," exactly? What does that mean?

As we move into this season of Thanksgiving. I encourage you to set aside time for prayer. Take time to speak as well as time to listen. As you do, be open minded to listen for God's answer. Give thanks to God who takes time to listen and respond (Luke 18:7).

Peace, Pastor Mark

Adult Education

Something special happens this year on Sunday, December 1! It's the beginning of a new church year. It's the First Sunday in Advent. The Advent wreath will be lit, we'll sing "O Come, O Come Emmanuel", our worship will point us to the Christ who has promised to come again at the end of all time and history, the Christ who is ever-present in Word and Sacrament, the Christ whose birth we'll celebrate on December 25. AND we'll begin hearing the Jesus story from the Gospel according to Matthew. Almost every Sunday. For a whole year. At times Matthew understands Jesus in similar ways as the other gospel writers do, but then Matthew has his own "take". So in preparation for hearing from Matthew, our adult education classes will focus on Matthew's telling through the first three weeks of November. Who was Jesus for Matthew? What's Matthew trying to teach us? What insights does Matthew bring to the table that are different from Mark, Luke, and John? Come and find out when we meet on Sundays at 10:20 and on Wednesdays at 11:00. Even if you haven't joined us before, jump in anytime!

Ministry Musings

Prayer...one of the staples of our Christian faith. But, what is prayer? How should we pray? Our Gospel lesson a couple of weeks ago (Luke 18:1-8) talked about a widow who was persistent in her appeal to an unjust judge who wanted nothing to do with her or her case. Yet she never gave up her petition; she kept on badgering the judge until he finally gave in and gave her a just ruling, just to get her off his back!

So, is this telling us that if we pray for something and God doesn't answer the way we want we should just keep on pestering him until he gets tired of hearing us and gives us what we want? I don't think so. I do think God wants us to continually pray for those in need either of physical or emotional healing, or for those in other needs. But to focus on our persistence is, I think, missing the point. I think we need to concentrate on God's persistence rather than ours; the good news of the Old and New Testament is about God's persistent, unshakeable, everlasting love for us and for all of creation. God is so persistently in love with us, God's love is sovereign and unshakeable that we can trust in this God to bring about justice.

God hears our prayers, those cries in the night as we call out to him with longing and emptiness. He hears our prayers of joy and thanksgiving. We may not always see the results we want, in the time-frame we want, but God has not forgotten us. Sometimes we grow impatient, losing heart and hope, but God never loses his hope in us. Theologian Fred Craddock puts it, "All we know in the life of prayer is asking, seeking, knocking, and waiting, trust; sometimes fainting, sometimes growing angry."

But this is the point when our faithful persistence enters the picture. Because we know and have experienced God's persistent love in Jesus, we can work everyday to persist in praying, "Thy kingdom come." Prayer is hard work while we wait during the time between God's promise and its realization. Praying means hopeful trusting in God, not in ourselves.

Our life of faith is not only about telling God what is on our wish list, but is about constantly lifting up every joy and concern, fear and doubt, every lament and plea to the one who hears us and answers. The answers may not come when and how we think they should, but God's love remains constant and persistent in the face of it all.

We, like to widow in the story Jesus told, can keep praying, hoping against all odds, persistent, determined and relentless; yet always praying, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done." The Holy Spirit gives us the courage to pray without ceasing and trust in God's goodness and love in this broken and fear-filled world.

STEWARDSHIP

As our Church Year 2020 Stewardship financial campaign comes to a close, your committee wishes to thank all for their response on our Estimate of Giving cards. Your faithful financial support will keep our mission and ministry goals moving forward in meeting our internal needs and expanding our reach to our local communities. Since we have not heard from all members, our Stewardship, Council, and Financial teams will be contacting these members to solicit their help in reaching our goals to expand our ministries work in the four ROCK areas we've identified for future investment: Increased Community Engagement, Increased & Effective Leadership, Children/Youth & Family ministries, and Membership Engagement.

You can still complete an EOG card that remains in the church pew attendance pads and on the table holding the Consecration Box OR you can electronically complete the form on our SOTP website.

We pray that you and your family will be inspired by the Holy Spirit to commit the first fruits of your labor to Him and find it in your hearts to increase your financial support provided to SOTP over the past year. Make a promise to God that you faithfully accept the challenge to work towards a tithe (10%) of your income to do His good works in His Earthly Kingdom. You will be blessed many times over for helping to meet the needs of God's lambs & sheep, reflecting His love to all those around you!

GREEN TREES—END OF YEAR WRAP UP

The Green Trees Low Income Housing Development has for many years been a major focus of our Mission Program at SOTP. While it has been a difficult season to recruit volunteers, a lot has been accomplished in maintaining grounds that would otherwise be overrun with weeds.

Before next season, SOTP will have to examine its future role in this project. The minimum, would, most likely be a periodic “work day” project each year.

To go beyond that, as we have over the last few years, and do a constant maintenance is a much larger undertaking. All types of potential resources need to be examined for future commitment. Community help, an expanded role of the McHenry Housing Authority, resident involvement are examples of this.

Many organizations have provided financial support over the years. Some have provided products and labor. I think they need to be named and, if applicable, would ask you to consider them in your business dealings. In no particular order :

*De Fiore / Jorgensen Funeral Home * Beans Farm, Hampshire
Thrivent Finanacial for Lutherans * Davys Tree Removal
Individuals From the Huntley Lions Club * Village of Huntley
Mission Team at SOTP*

On an individual basis, many people have helped, but the 3 people that come to mind for many reasons are:

Jill Brown, Steve Legel, Dick Tabatt

This year we have helped by Troop 200 who meet weekly at our church. (May you consider making this an annual event and may your troop increase in size every year.)

Special thanks to our Youth Group and Bob McDuffe and Melissa Jorgensen. (Also, it would be great to have you put this in your plans for next year – perhaps an earlier date?)

Finally, I think it is time to pass the Baton (or Shovel), both to individuals within SOTP and/or to other organizations within the community.

In 2012, (8 years ?) Village Trustee, Pam Fender, asked me to coordinate a “one time” planting at Green Trees. DONE !

Oh yes, she then asked me, as the weeds grew higher than the plantings, if I would again another “one time” weeding project. DONE !

Over the years, a great team of people have continued to maintain the grounds at Green Trees. For me, landscaping has always been a “labor of love”. DONE? -never Despite some minor frustrations, it has been a joy having residents and members become friends. Their thanks for what we do has been special.

The award they gave to me was accepted on the part of our great church and its workers.

I have loved seeing a beautiful landscape take place. When plants that we put in years before, come up each Spring, it is God has spoken to us :

“MY WORK - YOUR HANDS” (Sounds Familiar)

My physical limitations and a view that other people might like to be involved in a leadership capacity means for me that it is time to let go. I will try to stay involved on other levels.

If it is OK with the Mission Team, I would be happy to be a contact person for anyone who has an interest in this work, especially in a Leadership/ Coordinator role. I have many ideas, which have been documented as to what could be done in the future, all we need is “HANDS”.

Thank you for your love and support. Blessings, Jules

REFRESH YOUTH (GRADES 7—12)

At the end of September we studied John 15:1-12, where Jesus uses a beautiful, clear metaphor to describe himself as our life source. He explains that he is the vine, and we are the branches.

In our culture, we often look for meaning and identity in many other sources. But only when we recognize Jesus as our life source can we experience complete, fulfilled joy. In verse 11, Jesus says he has spoken these things so our joy will overflow.

We appreciate your prayer and support for our ministry. May God bless you.
